

PRE GRADUATION HI TEA CEREMONY 2019

OBJECTIVE

- As an appreciation to student AT110 for their commitment and effort to the Faculty of Plantation and Agrotechnology
- Provide students an opportunity to interact with alumni as a preparation in real working environment
- As an encouragement for student to be more successful in their future under taking
- To provide a platform of career networking between the student and the alumni from Persatuan Alumni Perladangan UITM (PAPU)

Pre Graduation HI TEA Ceremony Diploma 2019 is a programme organized by Faculty of Plantation and Agrotechnology with the collaboration of Planter's 110. The program was held at Hotel Equatorial Malacca with the participation of diploma student in fifth semester and undergraduate student, lecturer, staff and alumni from Faculty of Plantation and Agrotechnology.

The main input of the event is it to provide student an opportunity to interact as a preparation in real working environment. Associate Professor Dr Asmah Awal, Dean Faculty of Plantation and Agrotechnology through her welcoming speech said that the Pre Graduation HI TEA Ceremony Diploma 2019 is a one of platform for student exploring and leading the world of work in the field (plantation). Faculty of Plantation and Agrotechnology also prepares a resume for each student to be provided to the outside company under the plantation to attract them to take the plantation students after the graduate, its to avoid the student become unemployment.

The dean announced the opening ceremony of Pre Graduation HI TEA Ceremony Diploma 2019

Associate Professor Dr Asmah Awal was give, gift souvenirs to Alumni because cooperate that involved with Pre Graduation HI TEA Diploma 2019 and photography session with Alumni

From this event, Faculty of Plantation and Agrotechnology was expressing appreciation to the recipients of the students in terms of sportmanship, academic and co-curriculum, community and leadership as a token of appreciation on the efforts given to the faculty for 5 semesters.

The outcome of this event, generate more proactive, confident and creative students that will be produce in Faculty of Plantation And Agrotechnology in future after graduate.